NOTES.

Officers below the rank of brigadier general receive 10 per cent on the yearly pay of the grade for each term of 5 years' service, not to exceed 40 per cent in all. (R. S., 1262, 1263.) (Except colonel, lieutenant colonel, and major.) The maximum pay of a colonel is $5,000, that of lieutenant colonel, $4,500, and that of major, $4,000. (Act May 11, 1908.)

OFFICERS IN ACTIVE SERVICE.

1. An aid to a major general is allowed $200 and an aid to a brigadier general $150 per year in addition to the pay of his rank. (R. S. 1261.)

2. Any officer below the grade of major, required to be mounted, shall receive $150 per annum additional if he provides one suitable mount at his own expense, and $200 if he provides two mounts. (Act May 11, 1908.)

3. Lieutenants of the Medical Corps are entitled to pay of captain after 3 years' service. (Act Apr. 23, 1908.) After 5 years' service for those commissioned after June 2, 1916. (Act June 3, 1916.)

4. An acting judge advocate detailed by the Secretary of War is entitled to pay of captain. (Acts July 5, 1884; Feb. 2, 1901.)

5. Ten per cent increase on pay of all officers serving outside the United States, except Canal Zone, Panama, or Porto Rico or Hawaii. (Act Aug. 24, 1912.)

6. Chaplains appointed prior to April 21, 1904, are entitled to pay of captain; appointed subsequent to April 21, 1904, entitled to pay of first lieutenant for first 7 years' service, thereafter to pay of captain. (Acts Feb. 2, 1901; Apr. 21, 1904.) Not more than 15 chaplains having not less than 10 years' service in the grade of captain may be promoted to the grade of major. (Act Apr. 21, 1904.)

7. Aviation officers of the Signal Corps while on duty that requires them to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights are entitled to an increase in the pay of their grade and length of service under their commissions as follows: Aviation officers, 25 per cent; junior military aviators, 50 per cent; and military aviators, 75 per cent. Each junior military aviator and each military aviator duly qualified and while so serving shall have the rank, pay, and allowances of one grade higher than that held by him under his commission, provided that his rank under said commission be not higher than that of captain. (Act June 3, 1916.)

RETIRED OFFICERS.

1. Retired officers receive 75 per cent of their grade (salary and increase). (R. S., 1274.) No increase of longevity after retirement unless retired for wounds received in battle. (Act Mar. 2, 1903.) Except that: "Hereafter any retired officer of the Army who has been detailed to active duty, and who has since his retirement served on active detail be entitled to increases of longevity pay to be computed as provided by existing statute for the computation of longevity pay, for the time of his service before retirement and on active detail since his retirement." (Act May 12, 1917.)

2. Chaplains retired from active service prior to April 21, 1904, are entitled to the retired pay of captain; appointed prior to April 21, 1904, and retired from the active service subsequent to that date, but prior to completion of 7 years' service, entitled to retired pay of captain. (Acts Feb. 2, 1901; Apr. 21, 1904; 10 Comp., 765, May 7, 1904.)

3. When assigned to active duty, retired officers below the grade of lieutenant colonel receive the full pay and allowances of their grades, and a colonel or lieutenant colonel receive the same pay and allowances as a retired major would receive under a like assignment. (Acts Apr. 23, 1904; Mar. 2, 1905; and June 12, 1906.)

4. When assigned to duty at educational institutions under the provisions of the act of November 3, 1893, retired officers below the grade of lieutenant colonel receive the full pay and allowances of their grades, and a colonel or lieutenant colonel receive the full pay of a major with the allowances of their respective grades. (Act Mar. 3, 1909.)

5. "The President is hereby authorized to detail such numbers of officers of the Army, either active or retired, not above the grade of colonel, as may be necessary, for duty as professors and assistant professors of military science and tactics at institutions where one or more units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps are maintained. * * * Retired officers below the grade of lieutenant colonel so detailed shall receive the full pay and allowances of their grade, and retired officers above the grade of major so detailed shall receive the same pay and allowances as a major would receive under a like detail." (Act June 3, 1916.)

IN TIME OF WAR.

In time of war retired officers of the Army may be employed on active duty in the discretion of the President, and when so employed shall receive the full pay and allowances of their grade. (Act June 3, 1916.)

APPENDIX II.

LEGISLATION RELATING TO THE OFFICIAL REGISTER: 1816–1913.

LEGISLATION PROVIDING FOR OFFICIAL REGISTER.

[Resolution requiring the Secretary of State to compile and print, once in every two years, a register of all officers and agents, civil, military, and naval, in the service of the United States.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That once in two years a register, containing correct lists of all the officers and agents, civil, military, and naval, in the service of the United States, made up to the last day of September in each year in which a new Congress is to assemble, be compiled and printed under the direction of the Secretary for the Department of State. And to enable him to form such register he, for his own department and the heads of the other departments, respectively, shall, in due time, cause such lists as aforesaid of all officers and agents in their respective departments, including clerks, cadets, and midshipmen, to be made and lodged in the office of the Department of State. And the said list shall exhibit the amount of compensation, pay, and emoluments allowed to each officer, agent, clerk, and midshipman, the State or country in which he was born, and where employed.

2. Resolved, That the Secretary of the Navy subjoin to the list of persons employed in his department the names, force, and condition of all the ships and vessels belonging to the United States and when and where built.

3. Resolved, That five hundred copies of the said register be printed; and that on the first Monday in January in each year, when a new Congress shall be assembled, there be delivered to the President, the Vice President, each head of a department, each Member of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, one copy of such register; and to the Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives, each ten copies, for the use of their respective Houses; that twenty-five copies shall be deposited in the Library of the United States at the seat of government, to be used like other books in that library, and that the residue of the said copies be disposed of in such manner as Congress shall from time to time direct.

4. Resolved, That, for the information of the present Congress, such register as aforesaid be prepared and distributed as aforesaid on the first day of its next session.

Approved, April 27, 1816.

[Resolution respecting the Biennial Register.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, in addition to the matter heretofore contained in the Biennial Register, published by direction of a joint resolution passed on the twenty-seventh of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, there shall be included a correct list, in the next register, of all printers of the laws of the United States subsequent to the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, to the thirtieth of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, with the compensation allowed to each; and of all printers within the period aforesaid in any way employed by Congress, or by any department or officer of the Government, with the compensation allowed to each, designating the department or officer causing the printing to be executed; and that said register shall contain a correct statement of all allowances made by the Postmaster General, within the period last aforesaid, to each contractor on contracts for carrying the mail, discriminating the sum paid as stipulated by the original contract and the sums as additional allowance. And to enable the Secretary of State to comply with this resolution, the several heads of departments and officers directing or incurring the expense, or making the allowance mentioned, shall cause the lists and the matter thereby required to be added to be lodged in the office of the Department of State, as is directed in other cases by the resolution of April twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.

Resolved, That said register shall contain a correct list of the presidents, cashiers, and directors of the Bank of the United States and its branches in office on the thirtieth of September, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, which list shall be transmitted by the president of said bank to the Secretary of State by the first Monday of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three.

Resolved, That all Biennial Registers, under the said resolution of April twenty-seventh, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, shall hereafter be compiled and published conformably to the principles therein and hereby established.

Approved, July 14, 1832.

[Extract from the civil and diplomatic bill, approved March 3, 1851, relative to the insertion of an additional column in the Biennial Register for 1851.]

That an additional column be inserted therein, showing the State or Territory from which each person was appointed to office: And provided further, That one copy of the same be sent to each of the secretaries of state of the States.

[Extract from the act of March 2, 1861, "providing for keeping and distributing all public documents, and for other purposes."]

Sec. 1. And be it further enacted, That instead of five hundred copies of the Biennial Register or Blue Book, now ordered to be published, which shall hereafter be compiled under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, there shall, in future, be published seven hundred and fifty copies.

[An act in relation to the printing of the Biennial Register.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in lieu of the number of copies of the Biennial Register, now authorized by law to be printed, the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, directed to cause to be printed fifteen hundred copies of the said work.

Approved, January 23, 1874.

[Extracts from Revised Statutes of United States in relation to Biennial Register.]

Sec. 508. The Superintendent of Public Documents shall be charged, subject to the general direction of the Secretary of the Interior, with the duty of collecting, arranging, preserving, packing, and distributing the publications received at the Department of the Interior for distribution and with the duty of compiling and supervising the Biennial Register.

Sec. 510. As soon as practicable after the last day of September in each year in which a new Congress is to assemble a register shall be compiled and printed under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, of which seven hundred and fifty copies shall be published, and which shall contain the following lists, made up to such last day of September:

1. Correct lists of all the officers, clerks, employees, and agents, civil, military, and naval, in the service of the United States, including cadets and midshipmen, which lists shall exhibit the amount of compensation, pay, and emoluments allowed to each, the State or country in which he was born, the State or Territory from which he was appointed to office, and where employed.
2. A list of the names, force, and condition of all the ships and vessels belonging to the United States and when and where built.
3. Lists of all printers of the laws of the United States and of all printers employed by Congress or by any department or officer of the Government during the two years preceding the last day of September up to which such list is required to be made, with the compensation allowed to each, and designating the department or officer causing the printing to be executed.
4. A statement of all allowances made by the Postmaster General, within the same period of two years, to each contractor on contracts for carrying the mail, discriminating the sum paid as stipulated by the original contract and the sums paid as additional allowance.

[20 Stats., 13.]

Chap. 4.—An act providing for the printing and distribution of the Biennial Register.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in lieu of the number of copies of the Biennial Register now authorized by law to be printed, the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, directed to cause to be printed twenty-five hundred copies of the said work, to be distributed as follows: To the President of the United States, four copies, one copy of which shall be for the library of the Executive Mansion; to the Vice President of the United States, two copies; to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress, one copy; to the Secretary of the Senate, one copy; to the Clerk of the House, one copy; to the library of the Senate, fifty copies, of which one copy shall be supplied to each standing committee of the Senate; to the library of the House of Representatives, seventy-five copies, of which one copy shall be supplied to each standing committee of the House; to the Library of Congress, twenty-five copies; to the Department of State, two hundred and fifty copies; to the Treasury Department, one hundred and fifty copies; to the War Department, fifty copies; to the Navy Department, twenty copies; to the Department of Justice, twenty-five copies; to the Post Office Department, one hundred copies; to the Department of the Interior, two hundred and fifty copies; to the Department of Agriculture, five copies; to the Smithsonian Institution, four copies; to the State library and State historical society of each State, and to the executive of each Territory, and to the designated depository of public documents in each congressional district in the United States, one copy each; and the remaining copies shall be kept by the Secretary of the Interior as a reserve, from which he may supply newly created offices; and Members of Congress one additional copy each.

Sec. 2. That hereafter the lists directed by sections one hundred and ninety-eight and five hundred and ten of the Revised Statutes to be furnished by the several departments and offices of the Government for the Biennial Register shall be made up to the last day of June of each year in which a new Congress is to assemble, and shall be filed as soon thereafter as practicable in the Department of the Interior.

Approved, December 15, 1877.

[24 Stats., 649.]

[Providing for distribution of Official Register to depositories and libraries.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That inasmuch as the Official Register of the United States is now supplied to depositories of public documents as one of the set of congressional documents in leather binding, so much of the act of December fifteenth, eighteen hundred and seventy-seven, as provides for supplying depositories with this document is hereby repealed; and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to send the Register to such library not a depository as shall be named to him for the purpose by each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress.

Approved, March 3, 1887.

[28 Stats., 607.]

[Requiring Public Printer to file complete lists of officers, etc., in his department for use in preparing Biennial Register.]

Sec. 43. The Public Printer shall, on the first day of July in each year in which a new Congress is to assemble, cause to be filed in the Department of the Interior a full and complete list of all officers, agents, clerks, and employees employed in his department, or in any of the branch offices. He shall include in such list all the statistics peculiar to his department required to enable the Secretary of the Interior to prepare the Biennial Register.

DATA TO BE CONTAINED IN OFFICIAL REGISTER.

Act of Congress approved January 12, 1895 (28 Stats., 618).

To enable the officer charged with the duty of preparing the Official Register of the United States to publish the same, the Secretary of the Senate, the Clerk of the House of Represantatives, the head of each executive department of the Government, and the chief of each and every bureau, office, commission, or institution not embraced in an executive department, in connection with which salaries are paid from the Treasury of the United States, shall, on the first day of July in each year in which a new Congress is to assemble, cause to be filed with the Secretary of the Interior a full and complete list of all officers, agents, clerks, and other employees of said department, bureau, office, commission, or institution connected with the legislative, executive, or judicial service of the Government, or paid from the United States Treasury, including military and naval officers of the United States, cadets, and midshipmen.

Said list shall exhibit the salary, compensation, and emoluments allowed to each of said officers, agents, clerks, and other employees, the State or country in which he was born, the State or Territory, and congressional district and county of which he is a resident and from which he was appointed to office, and where employed.

LEGISLATION RELATING TO THE OFFICIAL REGISTER: 1816–1913.

A list of the names, force, and condition of all ships and vessels belonging to the United States, and when and where built, shall also be filed with the Secretary of the Interior by the heads of the departments having supervision of such ships and vessels, for incorporation in the Official Register.

The Postmaster General shall furnish a statement of all allowances made during the period of two years next preceding said first day of July above mentioned to each contractor on contracts for carrying the mails, discriminating the sum paid as stipulated by the original contract and the sums paid as additional allowances.

The Secretary of the Interior shall cause the Official Register to be edited, indexed, and published by the chief clerk of the Interior Department on the first day of December following the first day of July above mentioned.

Act of Congress approved March 3, 1893 (27 Stats., 708).

Hereafter the Official Register of the United States shall contain a statement which will show, by departments or offices, the number of officers and employees in the several executive departments, the Department of Labor, the Government Printing Office, and the offices of the government of the District of Columbia, appointed from each State and Territory and the District of Columbia, and the aggregate amount of their salaries or compensation.

Act of Congress approved April 28, 1902 (32 Stats., 138).

That for the fiscal year of nineteen hundred and two and thereafter a full and complete list of all officers, agents, clerks, and other employees of the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, including bank examiners, receivers and attorneys for receivers, and clerks employed by such examiners and receivers, or any other person connected with the work of said office in Washington or elsewhere, whose salary or compensation is paid from the Treasury of the United States or assessed against or collected from existing or failed banks under their supervision or control, shall be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior in accordance with the provisions of an act of Congress approved January twelfth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, relating to the Official Register.

Extract from the urgent deficiency appropriation act approved October 22, 1913, discontinuing Volume II, The Postal Service (Public—No. 32).

Hereafter the Official Register of the United States shall not contain the names of those persons heretofore published in Volume II relating to the Postal Service, namely, postmasters, assistant postmasters, clerks in post offices, city and rural carriers, employees of the sea-post office, employees of the Railway Mail Service, employees of the mail messenger service, and mail contractors; nor shall it contain the statement of allowances made to contractors for carrying the mails or the list of ships and vessels belonging to the United States, as heretofore published in the said Official Register; and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the foregoing provision are hereby repealed.

DISTRIBUTION OF OFFICIAL REGISTER.

Act of Congress approved January 12, 1895 (28 Stats., 619).

Of the Official Register three thousand copies shall be printed and bound, which shall be distributed as follows: To the President of the United States, four copies, one copy of which shall be for the library of the Executive Mansion; to the Vice President of the United States, two copies; to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress, one copy; to the Secretary and Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, to the Clerk and Sergeant at Arms of the House, one copy each; to the library of the Senate, ten copies; to the library of the House of Representatives, ten copies; to the Library of Congress, twenty-five copies; to the Department of State, one hundred copies; to the Treasury Department, one hundred and fifty copies; to the War Department, fifty copies; to the Navy Department, twenty copies; to the Department of Justice, twenty copies; to the Department of the Interior, two hundred copies; to the Post Office Department, one hundred copies; to the Department of Agriculture, fifteen copies; to the Smithsonian Institution, four copies; to the Department of Labor, four copies; to the Government Printing Office, four copies; to the Interstate Commerce Commission, two copies; to the Civil Service Commission, four copies; to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, two copies; to the Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries, two copies; and the remaining copies shall be delivered to the superintendent of documents, who is hereby authorized to send one copy to each designated depository and to such public college or school library not a depository of public documents, and one copy to such other person as shall be designated by each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress, and shall hold the remainder for sale under the provisions of this law. The usual number of the Official Register shall not be printed.

Act of Congress approved April 28, 1904 (33 Stats., 542).

In paragraph sixty-eight of section seventy-three, strike out the words "to the Department of Labor, four copies," and also the words "to the Commissioner of Fish and Fisheries, two copies;" and insert after the words "to the Department of Agriculture, fifteen copies," the words "to the Department of Commerce and Labor, one hundred and fifty copies."

TRANSFER TO THE DIRECTOR OF THE CENSUS.

Act of Congress approved June 7, 1906 (34 Stats., 219).

And the Director of the Census shall edit, index, and publish the Official Register of the United States, and the provisions of existing law imposing that duty upon the Department of the Interior are hereby repealed, and the data to be included in the Official Register, which is now required to be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior shall hereafter be transmitted to the Director of the Census.
